

RAILROADS PAY BIG TAX LEVIES

Checks for Large Amounts Will Go to Auditor To-Day to Save Penalty.

FEW WOULD-BE LAWYERS

Only 36 Will Take Examination To-Morrow—Gossip at the Capitol.

Checks for a few hundred thousand dollars will be handled to-day, not, perhaps, with indifference, but as a mere matter of business, by Chief Clerk C. Lee Moore, of the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts. They represent the annual taxes levied on the railroads and canal companies of this State by the Corporation Commission.

The Southern Railway came across yesterday with a piece of paper worth, in the proper hands, a trifle of $140,427.95. However, this amount is small compared with two checks which will put in an appearance to-day. One of these will be from the Chesapeake and Ohio, which will pay $268,127.17. But the biggest of all comes from the Norfolk and Western, Virginia's biggest tax-payer, whose contribution to the Treasury of the Commonwealth reaches the neat total of $313,757.69.

One Month Earlier.
Under the provisions of the law as passed by the Legislature at its last session, all taxes on railroads and canal companies are hereby due and payable on or before November 1 of each year, instead of December 1, as heretofore. This was done to give the State money at the lean time of the year, just before the bulk of all taxes are paid. All such corporations will be assessed a penalty of 5 per cent if their taxes are not paid by to-day, and all of them will be paid. Other public service corporations have until December 1, with other tax-payers.

The total taxes to the State due to-day amount to $965,452.15. It will be seen that the Norfolk and Western pays almost one-third of this. Of course, practically all of this is from railroads, as there are but three canal companies paying only $211.03.

This is, however, not all that the railroads pay. The property taxes payable to the cities and counties through which they run amount to a great deal more than the amount paid the State. The assessment is the same, but the local rates are higher.

SMALL LAW CLASS

Thirty-Six Nervous Applicants Will Face Examiners To-Morrow.

Only thirty-six would-be attorneys at law will face the dreaded inquisition before the State Board of Law Examiners to-morrow. This class is possibly a little smaller than the average for recent years.

The examination for licenses to practice the legal profession in Virginia will be held in the chamber of the State Senate. It will be begun at 10 o'clock, and will be concluded at 6 in the afternoon. So far as M. H. Watts, secretary to the board, is advised, there is no colored applicant in the number.

In the class examined in Richmond numbered seventy-two. In 1908 there was only thirty. However, in 1907 there were two examinations, one in January and the other in November. At the former there were sixty-four applicants, and at the latter thirty-three. In January, 1906, there were thirty-two; in 1905, forty-four, and in 1904, thirty-four.

Summer Class Largest.

Of course, the class in Richmond is always smaller than the one held during the summer months, for the reason that the latter takes place just after the close of the law school terms. For many years, until 1910, these examinations were held at Wytheville.

During the session of the Supreme Court, and the applicants have ranged in number from 75 to 125. Under the new law, which taxes examinations of the hands of the judges of the Supreme Court and puts them in those of a State board, the summer session is held at Roanoke, which was done this year for the first time.

To-morrow's examination will be the second to be held by the board.

Heard Around the Capitol.

Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Kolner is ill at his home, and was unable to come to his office in the Capitol yesterday.

Licence Clerk T. A. Lynch, of the Bureau of Insurance, has gone to his home at Tazewell. He will not return until after he casts his vote in next Tuesday's election for Henry C. Stuart. Mr. Lynch is a member of the Ninth District Democratic Committee.

State Highway Commissioner P. St. Julian Wilson hears little from the various campaigns in progress for road bonds. He is advised that there will be no further agitation on these subjects until after the regular election. This, of course, does not apply to Warren county, which will vote next Tuesday on the bond issue.

Chief Clerk C. A. Miller, of the Department of Agriculture, is at his home in Albemarle county. He is preparing to remove his family to Richmond.

Chief Clerk J. G. Hawkins, of the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, is still busy notifying election officers, in reply to inquiries, that it will not be necessary to have two sets of poll books for use in next Tuesday's election.

Frank B. Watkins, Sergeant-at-Arms of the State Senate and clerk in the Auditor's office, will go to Charlotte to-morrow to murder a few birds and vote for Carter Glass next Tuesday.

Secretary R. C. Stearns, of the Department of Public Instruction, will return from his speech-making tour to-day.

Labor Commissioner James B. Doherty has practically recovered from his recent illness, and is at his desk at the Capitol.

LIVINGSTONE WANTS TO BE CLERK OF HOUSE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Washington, D. C., October 31.—Congressman Lon Livingstone, who was recently defeated for another term in Congress, has announced himself a candidate for the position of clerk of the House of Representatives in the event the Democrats are victorious next week, to succeed the present clerk, Major Alexander McDowell.

For some time it has been understood that the new clerk would open a law office here, but the fact that he made formal announcement of his candidacy makes it certain that he will ask to be considered.
